Innogistic Managing Director in Vietnam Cycle Challenge

In November 2008, I will be mountain biking through Vietnam, covering 750 km over nine gruelling days. As a road bike man, this is a tough challenge!

I aim to raise over £2,650 for Friends of the Earth, a charity I feel passionate about.

I would be enormously appreciative of your support in helping me meet my target. For details on how to donate, see inside. Details of donations and latest news will be available at:

www.innogistic.co.uk

Thanks in advance.

Dave Roberts
